Pros and cons

Pros:

- Independent star-ratings methodology covering many Australian financial products
- Useful starting point for comparing lenders before applying anywhere
- Long-established, well-known Australian comparison brand
- Free to use for consumers

Cons:

- Not a lender — you still need to apply with the actual bank or lender you choose
- Ratings may be influenced by commercial relationships with some providers (common across comparison sites)
- Best rate for your situation isn't always the highest-rated product overall

Requirements

- No eligibility criteria to use the comparison service itself
- Eligibility for any specific loan is set by the lender you choose to apply with

Features

- Online loans up to $7 000 000
- Term 3 - 30 years
