Pros and cons

Pros:

- Fast, largely digital application and decision for existing NAB business customers
- No need to resubmit full financials NAB already holds
- Suited to short-term working capital needs
- Can be arranged without visiting a branch

Cons:

- Generally requires an existing NAB business transaction account
- Loan sizes are smaller than NAB's larger commercial facilities
- Rate is usually higher than a secured commercial loan of similar size

Requirements

- Active Australian Business Number (ABN)
- Minimum time trading, commonly 6 months or more
- Regular business turnover / bank statements

- Director guarantee may be required for unsecured facilities
- Existing NAB business transaction account is typically required

Features

- NAB QuickBiz Loan up to $250 000
- Term 1 - 5 years
