The screenshot shows the Westpac website's Mortgage Repayment Calculator interface. The page features a navigation menu with 'Home', 'Personal', 'Business', 'Corporate', 'About us', and 'Help'. A search bar is located in the top right corner. The main content area is titled 'Mortgage Repayment Calculator' and includes a sub-header 'Use our mortgage repayment calculator as a guide to what your repayments could be on your new home loan.' Below this, there is a 'Request a call back' button. The calculator form includes the following fields:

- 'I would like to borrow' with a text input field containing '$ 999999'.
- 'I would like to buy' with a radio button for 'To live in' (selected) and a radio button for 'An investment'.
- 'Over a loan term of' with a dropdown menu set to '10'.

A representative example

Loan amount $10 000 borrowed and fully repaid after 3 years of using the loan. Total amount payable = $10 428. The fee would be $428.
